MEMORANDUM FOR:

Don't want to lose track of my plan to get around to seeing the entire Cabinet before too long. Also, there were a couple of very sensitive memos that I was given in preparation for the Business Council meeting. Be sure that they are either filed with the Business Council trip business, the little blue book and the typewritten list of all the people who were there, or if the sensitive memo should be filed somewhere else, that there's a reference attached to them so that we can go get them easily.
